

Lead Pastor – Full Time
Manitou Evangelical Free Church
Neilburg, Saskatchewan

MEFC is seeking a candidate for the position of lead Pastor.

We are a congregation with a weekly attendance between 75 and 100. This body of believers began meetings in 1939 and has had a consistent membership since its beginning. The surrounding community consists of the villages of Marsden (pop. 297) and Neilburg (pop. 379) with the rural municipalities bringing the general population of the area to 1800.

We have a full variety of thriving ministries: all age level ministries, overseas missions, community initiatives, and worship ministries.

We are directly connected to the Manitou Lake Bible Camp, just a few miles away on the beautiful Manitou Lake.

Requirements:

- Must be a Canadian citizen
- Bachelor or Masters Degree in Biblical or Pastoral Studies
- Previous rural church pastoral experience necessary

Qualities:

- A passionate love for Gods word and a strong ability to share this through preaching and teaching.
- A personality that lends itself to the care of the congregation and community by empathy and love for people.
- Leadership ability that will encourage the body to stay focused, collectively and individually, on the Great Commission as given by Jesus and our specific vision statement as stated; <https://www.manitouefc.com/about/vision-statement/>

We believe that God has been preparing someone to lead our church family. If you believe this person may be you please forward your resume.

Thank you for prayerful consideration.
